

I am 100% opposed to you putting the media in control of fewer hands. These airwaves and media are public entities! And as such they should reflect more of the public views and not merely those of corporate America. I urge you to not go forward with your deregulation on June 2.